UNKNOWN SERIAL BANK ROBBER

March 19, 2012

April 13, 2012

May 9, 2012

September 18, 2012

DESCRIPTION

Height: 5'8"

Weight: 170 pounds

Sex: Male

Race: White

Clothing/Disguise: The suspects are described as a white male and black male, generally 5'8", 170 lbs, wearing hats and gloves with t-shirts tied around their faces. They were also carrying a bag or wearing a backpack during the robbery.

Vehicle Information: In all incidents, the suspect(s) has utilized a stolen vehicle which is later found, abandoned, a short distance from the bank that has been robbed.

Weapon Used: Weapons seen include a large silver revolver, black semi-automatic handgun, and one of the suspects was possibly armed with an assault rifle.

CAUTION

Since the beginning of the year, there have been multiple bank robberies in the South Hampton Roads area that are believed to be related. There have been two incidents in Chesapeake and three in Virginia Beach. In these incidents, one armed suspect enters the bank and gives non-verbal commands for money. The suspect also generally jumps over the counter at some point. There were two suspects that entered the bank on May 9, 2012, as opposed to the one suspect that is typically seen.

SHOULD BE CONSIDERED ARMED AND DANGEROUS
